

TRURO HASH HOUSE HARRIERS
NEWSLETTER
The Old Plough Inn, Shortlanesend – 22 02 09

Hares : Bhindi & Poser
 Visiting Hasher – Lazy Git.
 Number participating : approx 53?

Well here goes, my first attempt at a newsletter having been dropped in at the deep end today, and I thought no.10 was my lucky number!

Butterscotch and Apple Schnapps on offer as a pre-hash aperitif!

Down downs to begin with :

Philip – new hasher. Had to down beer from his new brilliant white trainer and his partner TTP.

Hash was good, weather a little cloudy at times but the sun managed to peep through.

Hash halt was rather wet in places – having a spot right next to a river and hashers being splashed. Whipped cream was a main element of the halt – not being ingested but being used as face cream! Food was good – smoked salmon, olives etc but there were complaints that there was no beer or any sausage rolls!

Hash was apparently 10 minutes over usual time.

201 score for pub. Hash – very nice.

Little Nibble dropped a drink in the pub. Good food in a lovely pub, freebie from landlord.

Down downs were awarded to:

Hares Poser & Bhindi – who sported matching shoes! Bhindi christened hers with beer.

Band Aid – my new hash name because of NHS connection. Other suggestions which were n't so nice – MRSA and C-Dif!!

Hap – registered on facebook as living in Truro, Massachussetts!

Dishy Goolies – said splashes were small on the hash but size doesn't matter!

Limpet – for nearly killing himself chasing young women.

New Hashers named – Ace-hole (in the Army), and his wife Fergie (Man Utd connection).

Dopey had beer chucked at him by PC 69 who also had down down (can't remember what for?)

N'Trace – for asking PC 69 for a blow job!

On on.....Band Aid
