

TRURO HASH HOUSE HARRIERS... the drinking club with a running problem.

Where: The Lizard

Pub Score: 69000

Hares: P.M.T. and WONT RUN CANT RUN

Run Score: 69

Newsletter Writer: Papermate

Run Number:1199 18.07.2010

Hashers numbering around 40 with Flozzie, Tag, Rag, Plonker and The Wife from Henry's Camp Site set off for the cliffs together with new hashers Chelsea, Quita and Torla. The old and the new with the old, Papermate, acting as sweeper at the rear, so no idea what I am to write about! We past Anne's Pasties and the Football Club, remembering their excellent band from Saturday night, who would be great for a future hash event. Ents to note - I have details.

We went around the Hotel onto the cliff edge heading for the café where we had also enjoyed a great meal last night. WRRCR was now somewhat confused but we were on the right trail for the short run which passed near The Lizard village - so we lost a few weak and wanting at this point but the majority made it to our re group on the cliff edge.

The Hash Halt with usual beer and softies included Bhindi drinking from both new shoes and she seemed to enjoy it! On On to Down Downs for the Hares, Papermate/Not a Full Shilling/Foetal Attraction back from Interhash. The hash notes read N.F.S. - Car Keys, N'Trace - Packing, Liability - Sleeping Bag, Tantrum and kids short cutting back to the village, Doc denting his new wagon, Bhindi asleep in pub, Charlotte Kerb Crawling and CD dating and booking.

Then it was on back to PMT's for her hospitality and time for Papermate to have a dozezzzzzzzzzzzz. A good weekend, good camping and weather held, On On to next Sunday on Holywell Beach. Dishy Goolies said:

If you're going to the 1200th Hash at Holywell Bay on Sunday 25th July, you may be interested in saving yourself £4 on parking and consider the bus, which won't cost a lot more & means you'll save fuel & can have a Betty Stoggs or 3 :-.....Buses on Sunday leave Victoria Square, Truro at 9:45 getting to Holywell Bay at 10:39 in time for the 11am start. Returning to Truro at 9 minutes past the hour, every hour until 18:09
