

Big Birthday Hash

Spit & Gonzo's 21st
'eres ya flowers!

A long Monday night

with Truro Hash House Harriers

Hares: Spit & Pussy Galore

Shortly after the run commenced, LBW was having grave concerns running through the cemetery, he worked very hard on trying to get secret info out of Slapper to find out who went to the Cupid night in town the night before, in aid of Bugger Offs Charity.

The trio of L's - LBW, Laurence & Lap Dancer all tried to get poor innocent Slapper in trouble for being on the phone, disappointed to find out she was going to be the first Hasher to get a newsletter out within 24 hours as she was making notes - on her phone! Clever Slapper

That's Slapper who sells Habberdash. Anybody moaning about past orders may only continue to moan if they ply her with beer at the same time. New funky stuff will be ordered when the past stocks clear, soon advertised, so pls do get ya cash out!!! Order drinking tops from: luciclaire@yahoo.com

Happy Birthday
Gonzo and Spit!
We hope you enjoyed your
parties and Hash!
Big kiss from Sapbling X

The Birthday boy and Pussy told us lies about about a dry and flat run

Some boys misbehaved on the Hash, LBW can get that leg up high for his age can't he? well done

Old Chicken still smiling despite a well earned hangover
Some people got their first shower of the year

Dopey the Barbarian (previously rolling around in the dust somewhere....)
was waxing lyrical about his rugby days, I get bored
when people talk sport, so I imagined him waxing his legs....ahhh then there's Furry! Funny Furry, funny
funny funny Furry. Imagine a world without Furry?
Scary aye? Anyway, let's Wax the boy for charity
soon - aye Bugger Off?

So later on I asked High and Mighty about his Portuguese Hashing and the Lisbon run etc and all I heard was 5 STAR Hashing!
How fantastic - damask
table cloths for Hash Halts, posh hotels (owner was a hasher), sounds like we should step it up a bit fellow Hashers.

As usual delighted to be hashing, despite the river crossing (don't mess with her this is Britains fastest down down lady)

Dopey had suspicious markings on his shirt, been rubbing up against something.....

Great Hash - not been up this field before (or have I?!)

Thanks most fantastic Mayor of Truro - ere have a down down

Look at this crazy bunch of teenagers!

I cropped the bottom half - can anyone guess what was happening?

She's still got a week or two of Mayoral stuff, I'll give it to Lazza for broadcasting, distribution and twitting AFTER, it's hot stuff y'know!

I'd just like to say Droop was very funny the same day (see emails about Cheddar/Brewery/Wine & cheese)!

I'd also like to say how wonderful Droops stunning manners are.

Well done Droop, I think you might get waxed too.

Down Downs

Dopey- for fitting a roof rack to his car for a bike!

Not the Full Shilling- for celebrating his 61st birthday celebration- he's not 61

Park & Ride- As she will definitely not be working tomorrow

Down Downs

Laurence - LBW was concerned loads of fans might be turning up on the Hash to see him run.

Also he told LBW he “will run a few miles every night to keep up with you all, you won't tell anyone will you?” - Lesson One: Never tell an RA anything!

Finally - Laurence paid Droop with a £20 note!

Downs Downs

Cheddar Gorge - for complaining she was tired - LBW asked "What's changed?"

Furthermore, in Portugal, on the Hash she had apparently said she had been very "busy 'danking' off High & Mighty's kayak!"

Danking makes you tired.... find out what danking is on Skid's Brewery Trip (25th)

Down Downs/Marks for the Pub

Knobby Nuts - As we were cutting through the Courts, Knobby said, "They've done it justice coming through ere" ha ha ha ha

When shopping recently, Knobby was on an escalator going upstairs when the power cut out! He was stuck for 4 hours!

Latex- Something about voting!

Hap - being a fine Mayor

Marks for the Hash 50

Marks for the Pub 169
